

Robert Brown Irrigation

Water Conservation Issues

March 2009

With the continuing drought in California, we offer the following water conservation tips:

1. If you have an automated sprinkler system, set the controller to water every third day.